JUNK DEALER'S WILL FOUND IN WASH TUB DECLARED INVALID.

COMPLICATED CONTEST OVER MASSACHUSETTS ESTATE OF
A QUARTER MILLION DOLLARS

BOSTON, Jan. 31.—When William J. Corbett died two years ago he left a will on the bottom of a wash tub disposing of a fortune of a quarter of a million dollars, which he had accumulated in the junk business. The court decided the will to be invalid and today a hearing was begun in the contest brought by those who claim to be the heirs of the dead junk dealer. The contest was first brought by Albert and Frederick Barlow, half brothers of Corbett. Recently, however the case was complicated by the appearance on the scene of James F. Corbett the brother of the dead man, whose whereabouts had been unknown for years. Francis F. Corbett was working in Newark, N. J., when he happened to read in a New York paper of the death of his brother. He came to Boston on the first train and easily succeeded in establishing his identity.

THE UNITED STATES TO CLOSE PORTS TO CHINESE.

HEREAFTER BOSTON WILL BE ONLY EASTERN PORT FOR YEL-LOW IMMIGRANTS.

BOSTON, Jan. 31.—All stations on the border through which Chinese have been admitted in the past, with the exception of Boston, will be closed after today.

The bulk of Chinese immigration in the eastern part of the country will therefore be through Boston. Stations to be closed are those at Malone, N. Y., Richford, Vt., and Portland.

This new order was issued by Chas. Nagel, secretary of the department of commerce and labor, whose original intention was to have all Chinese examined at Vancouver, B. C., and, if eligible, enter at Seattle. But the Canadian Pacific Railroad made arrangements to carry the aliens across the continent to Halifax, N. S., from their ships at Vancouver and from there to Boston by the Plant line.

Boston being a statutory port could not be closed on a department order. This arrangement will mean an increase of about 600 Chinese applicants each year, and the nationality will form an important proportion of foreigners held at the detention quarters. Chinese Inspector McCabe will be given more assistants.

CLARK COLLEGE TO INSTALL NEW HEAD

WORCESTER, Mass., Jan. 31.—Official delegates representing various seats of learning throughout the country are arriving here to attend the inauguration tomorrow of Dr. Edmund C. Sanford, as president of Clark College. Among the prominent educators who will attend the ceremony are President Ira Remsen, of Johns Hopkins University, President Lancaster of Olivet College, Professor Richey, of Purdue University, President Hill, of the University of Missouri, Professor E. B. Delbarre, of Brown University, President Lowell, of Harvard University, Chancellor McCracken of New York University, Professor Titchener, of Cornell University, President Atkinson, of Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, and President Seelye of Smith College.

SOUTH DAKOTA POULTRY SHOW OPENED TODAY

MITCHELL, S. D., Jan. 31.—The annual show opened here today by the South Dakota State Poultry association is the largest and best exhibition of its kind ever seen in this section. Several states are represented among the exhibits, which includes hundreds of chickens, turkeys, ducks, pigeons, rabbits and other varieties of poultry and pet stock. The show will continue until February 3rd.

THE DAYTONA-DELAND ROAD RAPIDLY GOING FROM BAD TO WORSE.

SADLY IN NEED OF IMMEDIATE REPAIRS—AUTOMOBILES BAD-LY CUTTING THE ROADWAY.

Hell is paved with good intentions—so is the road between Daytona and Deland. The magnificent road bed is fast deteriorating and unless something is done with it immediately, by springtime the $80,000 spent by Volusia county in its building will be as naught.

The heavy travel by automobiles is cutting the marl very rapidly, especially when it rains. Immediate repairs could be made and the highway saved. That marl is not a substantial road material has been proven in this case, although some may say that the fault lies in the quality of the marl.

The road between Daytona and New Smyrna practically takes care of itself, because it is built for the most part over shell beds, and shell itself used for the entire road. It has been suggested that Volusia county would be wise in investing in an automobile truck, and with it transport shell from the mound near Port Orange to the Deland road. The expense of such a truck would be far less than for hauling marl much lesser distance with teams, and the road would be far more lasting.

The road is growing worse day by day and its condition has become the subject of criticism by most everyone who travels it.

AMERICANS REACHING OUT AFTER CUBAN TRADE.

COMMENCING TO-MORROW A THROUGH PACKAGE CAR WILL BE OPERATED FROM CHICAGO TO KNIGHT'S KEY.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—For the purpose of aiding this city in competing with Germany and England for the Cuban trade, the Illinois Central and Big Four railroads have arranged to operate beginning tomorrow a through package car by way of Knight's Key Florida, which will greatly facilitate shipments.

Despite the fact that Cuba is geographically tributary to the United States, the merchants of this country do a ridiculously small percentage of the business. England has made a careful study of conditions in Cuba, and cater to the whims of the merchants, while the American manufacturers have been inclined to ignore climatic and other conditions, pack their shipments as they see fit and let Cuba take them or leave them.

The completion of the Florida East Coast will largely remove the necessity for special packing of shipments. Until it is completed bulk must be broken at Knight's Key where delivery will be made to a boat sailing daily and arriving at Havana every morning at 9 o'clock.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The annual banquet of the Automobile Club of America will be held tonight in the ball room of the Waldorf-Astoria.

TWO NAVAL OFFICERS ARE ON TRIAL BEFORE COURT MARSHAL AT BOSTON.

EXACT NATURE OF THE CHARGE AGAINST THEM SURROUNDED BY CONSIDERABLE MYSTERY.

BOSTON, Jan. 31.—A court martial to try paymaster G. P. Auld and Past Assistant Surgeon A. H. Robnett of the United States navy opened at the Charleston Navy Yard today. Captain J. M. Helm is president and Captain H. J. Hirschinger, U. S. M. C., is judge advocate.

The exact nature of the charge against the two officers is surrounded with considerable mystery. The charge was brought by Medical Inspector H. E. Ames, attached to the navy yard, who accuses the two officers of insulting and assaulting Dr. E. S. Cowles at an entertainment at Dr. Ames' house last month. Dr. Cowles is a cousin of rear Admiral William S. Cowles.

For the first time in many years in addition to the ordinary charge, appears the curious old accusation of "while on shore maltreating an inhabitant," which is reminiscent of the old wooden navy.

Naval circles are much stirred up over the trial. When it opened this morning reporters were refused admission to hear the testimony.

WESTON READY FOR HIS WALK FROM THE PACIFIC.

TO START TOMORROW ON LONG JOURNEY FROM LOS ANGELES TO NEW YORK.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 31.—Edward Payson Weston, whose feats as a pedestrian, have made him famous throughout the world, completed his arrangements today for another and last transcontinental walk. Starting from this city tomorrow noon Weston hopes to make the trip from ocean to ocean in one hundred days. He will be given a great send off by his thousands of admirers in Southern California.

The actual start from Los Angeles will be westward, so that Santa Monica, a California coast city, can first be reached. In this way the ocean to ocean circuit will be literally covered. With the Pacific ocean rolling at his feet, Weston will then turn eastward for his transcontinental dash.

When the walk ends on the steps of the city hall in New York City on May 28th, Weston will thus both technically and actually have walked across the continent from the Pacific to the Atlantic.

PASSED ALLENHURST ON SOUTHERN CRUISE SATURDAY.

ALLENHURST, Fla., Jan. 29.—The hunting cabin cruiser, Dakota, and the auxiliary schooner, Nomade, of St. Mary's, passed through the canal today going south, bound for Miami and other points.

200,000 NOW HOMELESS IN THE CITY OF PARIS.

SEINE RECEDING ONE-HALF INCH PER HOUR—THE SITUATION IS STILL GRAVE.

PARIS, Jan. 31.—With 200,000 homeless in Paris and its suburbs, and 300,000 without employment, and hundreds still imperilled by the flood and acute distress on every hand, the city is today preparing to fight possible pestilence and rebuild.

The Seine is still receding but only about a half an inch per hour. In the suburbs many families are still imperilled, and boats are bringing marooned families from the roofs and upper floors to land. Many have been without food for several days. Some are delirious and many seriously ill from exposure.

The grave danger was further demonstrated today by the collapse of the Rue St. Tazare and Rue Caumartin sidewalks into the subways. Many streets are closed to the public.

The authorities will take immediate charge and disinfect the city. Pending the reopening of many closed portions of the city the authorities will give all applicants a chance to earn wages cleaning up the city.

MURDER AT OAK HILL EARLY THIS MORNING.

ONE NEGRO KILLED ANOTHER AND MADE ESCAPE—DETAILS
LACKING.

At an early hour this morning a murder was committed at Oak Hill. Communication with the sheriff's office at Deland elicits no further details. Sheriff Smith was on his way to Oak Hill at noon, although from a message received here by Deputy Sheriff Myers it seems that a negro named Will Jones killed another negro and then escaped and is still at large.

Oak Hill being cut off from telephonic communication, details are unobtainable.

WENT TO PICTURE SHOW; LAUGHED TILL HE DIED.

JOHN HOLCEND, OF BROOKLYN, BECAME HYSTERICAL OVER A MOVING PICTURE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Although the death certificate signed today ascribes "overtaxing of heart" as cause of death, John Holcend, of Brooklyn, really laughed himself to death.

He went to a moving picture show last night and laughed so hard that the other patrons objected. Ushers started to take him out, when he fell to the floor laughing. He was taken home still laughing and died several hours later still laughing hysterically.

DISCUSSING PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

BOSTON, Jan. 31.—The hearing on the proposed amendment to the Federal Constitution giving Congress power to levy taxes on incomes, began here today in the State House. It is expected that Massachusetts will be the first northern state to go on record concerning this reform. Rhode Island is expected to follow. Vermont will decide the proposition next fall.

A PLEASANT BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY.

Mrs. M. P. Cornwall's birthday last Saturday was made the occasion of a very delightful social gathering of friends by her husband and mother-in-law, Madam J. W. Cornwall. Some dozen or more friends were invited in and the game of 500 was enjoyed. Elaborate refreshments were served after the game, and the evening was otherwise enjoyed in social converse.

ROBBED BY MAN HE HAD BEFRIENDED.

STRANGER BROUGHT HERE FROM ATLANTA SOME WEEKS AGO
DECAMPS WITH HIS EMPLOY-ER'S MONEY.

F. F. Smith, saw mill owner, who lives a short distance south west of this city, was robbed Friday afternoon of between $250 and $300, by a man he had brought home with him from Atlanta, Ga., about three weeks ago.

Mr. Smith met the man, or rather boy, for he says he was but eighteen years of age, in the railroad depot of Atlanta, while waiting for a train to return to Daytona, and the fellow, who appeared like a green country youth, appealed to him for work.

Mr. Smith told him he was on his way to Florida where he conducted a saw mill and would give him work in the mill at $1.50 per day. He said he would be glad to get away from Atlanta, but had no money, so Mr. Smith paid his railroad fare and expenses to this city with the understanding that it was to be repaid from his wages.

There was no regular work for him at the present so Mr. Smith kept him busy as much as possible about the house and Mrs. Smith says she several times reproved him for his prying ways, but merely thought it arose from an undue amount of curiosity.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have been preparing to move a house on the Deland road, a couple of blocks west of Ridgewood avenue, and on Friday Mr. Smith set him at work piling some wood at this place. Mr. Smith went to New Smyrna for the day and at noon Mrs. Smith took some dinner to the young man on her way to a mill which Mr. Smith has been operating on the Tomoka river.

A lady living near by, says that as soon as Mrs. Smith had gone the boy also left, evidently to go directly to the residence, knowing that neither Mr. or Mrs. Smith would be home before night.

When Mrs. Smith did return at about half-past four the boy was not about but had left his suit case ready packed with clothing belonging to Mr. Smith as though he had intended to take it but for some reason had failed to do so.

When Mr. Smith returned at between ten and eleven o'clock she reported the fellow's disappearance. Mr. Smith at once thought of his safe, but his wife assured him that it was all right as she had tried it before she left at noon and found it securely locked. He therefore dismissed the matter and retired, but the next morning, after he had hitched up his horse and started for the location of the new mill to be built near the west end of the North bridge, the feeling that he ought to examine the safe was so strong that he returned and on opening it found that something between $250 and $300 was missing. The money taken was all in $20 bills and what appears strange is the fact that five $100 bills in the same drawer were left untouched, although they could not have been overlooked.

ON CASH BOY TO MILLIONAIRE.

KESENER TODAY RE-TURNED FROM THE HEAD OF BIG DEPARTMENT STORE.

Jan. 31.—"Every man has a right to be a millionaire," is the advice of James F. Kesner, who today retired from the position of general manager of one of Chicago's famous "big" department stores after the millions he has accumulated by hard work and the sweat of his brow. Mr. Kesner is now one of the youngest owners of downtown Chicago. His entire fortune is said to have come to him through his attention to business and the sweat of his brow.

As an example of what a man with the right stuff in him can do, and the right to which he can attain in the face of seemingly unmountable obstacles, Mr. Kesner's life is an object lesson to the youth of the land. When he was forty-five years ago he was brought to America by his parents when he was three years old. His parents were poor and it was necessary for him to go to work at a very early age. He had very little schooling, but at night he put in his time at a business college.

At twelve years of age he obtained employment in a State street department store. The store is now one of the largest mercantile establishments in the world, but in those days it was a comparatively small affair. After working several years as a clerk, Mr. Kesner became a salesman. In 1881 he was given the management of one or two departments of the store and as the establishment increased in size he was given added responsibilities.

Now satisfied with merely making good to the extent of holding his own job, Mr. Kesner made his reputation known over the country in retail trade business and he became known as one of the shrewdest buyers and managers in the business. In the course of time he was made assistant general manager and in 1895, when only twenty-nine years of age, he became general manager of the store.

For his friends regard his career as extraordinary Mr. Kesner does not look upon his success as in any way unusual. "There are just as many opportunities now," he says, "as there ever were, and more so, for both men and young men who will use the proper amount of energy and the interest of their employer. Good selling workers are always required according to the quality and quantity of their work. All business men are looking for bright young men who are willing to work them."

TO SPEND $10,000,000 ON WATERWAYS PROJECT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The House committee on rivers and harbors has reported and will report tomorrow a bill carrying between $30,000,000 and $100,000,000 to enable army and navy engineers to carry out important waterway projects. The committee has incorporated in the bill only those amounts which the engineers have spent in the next fiscal year.

By L. C. DEMAREE.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pelucid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey fcod fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom fleck-ed with duck and coot and snow-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon this beautiful surface. Take out your fiel glass and sweep the river from Ormondg bride to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artists' brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms;
see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptogamons forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions,
perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another, so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering,
"What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most
and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,
—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Frut.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and Squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, proficacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.

The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbuckto, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily par-ad and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power, up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from acanter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours.
The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in-
to your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising and progressive towns on the Halifax Peninsula, are geographically one although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns parallel the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide-water stream that sets them apart from Daytona with which they have close communion by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The mean average temperature, 80 degrees in the summer and 70 degrees in the winter, with an occasional extra rise or drop of a few days' duration, marks this as one of the most healthful locations in any section of the country, north, east, south or west.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth and air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straightaway record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The sand of this famous speedway is composed largely of the shells of the coquina clam, which are about one-half inch long and very thin.
For ages Nature has been rolling them up, washing them back into the surf and pulverizing them. Examined under the microscope each particle is round, unfit for mortar, builders say, because its smoothness prevents its holding together, yet, strange to contemplate, the very moment a wave leaves the wet, apparently soft beach, these round particles settle down into a cement almost as hard as asphalt, beyond the comprehension of one who has not seen it. Repairs are unnecessary, as twice each 24 hours
it is entirely rebuilt by the tides.
The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet, and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobiling some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors.

Seabreeze contains a handsome opera house and a Congregational Church; at Daytona Beach is a M. E.
Church. An excellent high school is situated near the division line between the two towns. Both towns have enterprising business establishments, as is evidenced by the advertisements on the left and right.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated.
The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy. Flowering shrubs have been planted, which are covered with a wealth of bloom both summer and winter.

Work of rebuilding the Clarendon hotel is now in progress. This magnificent fire-proof structure, which is to contain 250 rooms, when completed will be the peer of any hotel in Florida. The site is immediately north of the clubhouse of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association.

The Ocean Pier is a great attraction to fishermen and it is lined summer and winter with enthusiastic disciples of Izaak Walton, who find it nothing unusual to land fish weighing several hundred pounds.

PROGRESSIVE NEW SMYRNA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, the miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and over-arched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the State of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the State is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

New Smyrna has no bonded indebtedness and the tax levy is low. A point that no tourist should fail to visit is the ruins of the Old Spanish Mission which stand somber and alone about one and a quarter miles southwest of New Smyrna. A good road leads to the place and the trip can be easily made by an automobile.

Silent, in the great pine flats by the margin of the forest, is this place of pilgrimage for the pious; this rendezvous for the picnicker. The ruins are extensive, and while there is no authentic history of their origin, it is presumed that the Mission was built by the Franciscans in the days when the once powerful Kingdom of Spain first planted its flag upon what is now American soil. It was built of coquina, the roof being of the same material, cut into thin slabs and covered with cement plaster. Extensive gardens surrounded it, which were enclosed by a stone wall, portions of which still remain. Visitors usually come in parties merry and curious but the spell of the place soon falls upon them and they separate to sit alone, silent and meditative, under the arches or beside the ancient well.

is situated on the peninsula opposite New Smyrna and is connected by a good road and bridge over the deep current of Indian River. Here you can put aside your conventional garb, breathe in large and deep the salty tonic of the sea and enjoy yourself to your heart's content with rod and reel in row or sail boat or in the ocean surf a short half-mile away. The great varieties of fish inhabiting the river and lagoon pass through the channel from the sea beneath the bridge. From verandas, upper balconies and windows you behold the magnificent river, the distant lagoons and islands, the forest-covered peninsula and the vast reaches of the Atlantic Ocean.

HAWKS PARK
A pretty village located along the ridge above the Indian River two and one-half miles south of New Smyrna and connected with fine shell roads. There is the appearance of newness, comfort and seclusion about the place which stamps it as the abode of people who come here to enjoy the blessings of outdoor life away from places where crowds are apt to gather.

ORMOND is five miles north of Daytona, located on the western bank of the Halifax River. The location of the town permits of good drainage and perfect sanitation; the elevation is superb and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Ormond Beach.

Many fine residences are maintained on either side of the river, most of them embellished with subtropical flora and shrubbery, besides thrifty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

The town is very cosmopolitan,
has an excellent graded school, several churches, a fine public library, up-to-date places of business and comfortable and convenient hotels and boarding houses.

Ormond has many of the Florida
attractions—fine fruit, good fishing, excellent automobilizing, safe boating, salubrious climate and pleasant walks and drives.

At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, Bretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax River, while the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

The walks in all directions are particularly attractive, and the arbors, shady and inviting spots and romantic nooks are crowded with rustic seats which are mute invitations to enter into the enjoyment thereof.

Besides the broad, smooth ocean beach there are many drives for carriage or automobile—long drives and short drives; drives through groves of golden oranges; drives through dense tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Can-say built by the slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of these interesting plantations is Number Nine, located on the peninsula, five miles north of the Hotel Ormond. Here you see a fine orange grove, together with great varieties of other sub-tropical fruits and flowers.

Five miles further on you come to Moundgrove, one of the finest orange groves in this section of Florida.
Moundgrove is on the headwaters of the Halifax River and is amid pretty surroundings. The place is reached by a good road [passing Number Nine] and is a drive all tourists may enjoy.

COTTAGES AND ROOMS TO LET—

PICTURESQUE PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE is a pretty little village situated five miles south of Daytona on the Daytona-New Smyrna hard-surface road, the scenic highway of the East Coast. The town is located on the Halifax River, over which spans a bridge from the town to the peninsula opposite.

The town is well laid out and has many pretty homes owned and occupied by residents and winter tourists.
It has several churches, one of the best graded schools in Volusia county, two general stores, a real estate agency and two or three hotels.

A large number of tourists and winter residents make Port Orange winter headquarters, one of the several attractions being the excellent fishing. Port Orange is in the orange belt and a number of very fine citrus groves are nearby, where oranges, tangerines and grape-fruit hang in profusion. Some of the best trucking land in the State is to be found thereabout and excellent crops are raised.

West of Port Orange a short distance are the remains of the old Dunlawton sugar mill, a spot that is visited every year by hundreds of tourists. At one time all the country west of Port Orange, surrounding the old mill, was a vast sugar-cane and indigo plantation. The mill was operated extensively in those days but has been in disuse for thirty or forty years.

A pretty automobile or carriage drive from Daytona is via the ocean beach to the approach of the Port Orange bridge, across the bridge and then passing through Port Orange to the ruins of the celebrated old sugar mill, returning to Daytona by the road on the mainland. This drive affords a very pleasing variety of scenery.

DELAND, the county seat of Volusia County,
is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At Deland is located the John B.
Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational Deland is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $60,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. Deland proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominating products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads,
an excellent high school, electric lights,
a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that Deland is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to Deland is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute.

From Deland automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from Deland to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from Deland to Lake Helen, a like distance.

FRANK MEADOW CHARGED WITH MURDERING FAMILY.

CASE WHICH PROMISES TO BECOME NOTABLE IN CRIMINAL ANNALS OF OHIO CALLED FOR TRIAL.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 31—The case of Frank Meadow, which promises to become notable in the criminal annals of Ohio, was called for trial today in the common pleas court. Meadow is accused of dynamiting the home of the Spino family in Arlington last August, by which Mrs. Spino and her five children met their fate.

MATCH FOR WORLD'S POOL CHAMPIONSHIP.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31—Two of the most skillful players of 15-ball pool in the world begin a world's championship match tonight in the New York Theatre concert hall. They are Thomas Heuston, the present champion, and Jerome Keough, of Rochester, who formerly held the title. The match requires the winner to pocket 600 balls, and will last three nights, 200 balls being played each night.

It is a genuine championship contest, Houston having been formally challenged by Keough, while the New York Roomkeeper's Association has guaranteed a purse of $1000. It is the first championship contest to take place in New York in several years. Both men have been in the city for several weeks and are in good condition.

SUGGESTION AS TO REPAIRING STREET.

The best and proper time to repair a road or street, is awhile after rain has fallen, the water or dampness indicating very plainly the hollows or depressions which should be filled. Unless the hollows are very pronounced, it is almost impossible to properly make surface repairs. This is shown at the north end of Palmetto avenue, where a couple of deep hollows were filled, while several other places near by required attention, but could not be seen when the street was entirely dry, but are now visible since the rain. This is no reflection upon the workmen doing the job, but to show that it was done when the hollows did not show, for about enough marl was used to have done the entire work in a satisfactory way, at a time when the imperfect places could be easily seen.

HOWARD GOULD HAS TO PAY WIFE'S BILLS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31—The domestic troubles of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gould which have been aired in the courts so often came again before the public today when lawyers for parties filed brief in a suit which a Fifth avenue haberdasher has instituted against Mrs. Gould for $249 for shirt waists, linen collars and stocks. The judge in the case favors the defendant and says he thinks a man ought to pay his wife's bills whether they are separated or not.

HOTEL MEN TO AID IN MEAT BOYCOTT.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31—If a resolution to be brought before the Western Hotel Men's Protective association which assembled in convention here today is adopted, the meat boycott will receive a decided impetus. It is proposed that the hotel men throughout the country shall for the time being omit all meats from their menus, or at least take steps to discourage their patrons from eating meats until the prices are reduced.

GENERAL WILDER'S EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 31—General John T. Wilder, who became famous as the head of Wilder's Brigade during the civil war, received many congratulations today on the occasion of his eightieth birthday anniversary. General Wilder has been a resident of Knoxville since the war and is known as one of the foremost capitalists and manufacturers in this section of the south.

At the outbreak of the war General Wilder enlisted in Indiana as a private, was elected captain the same day and was promoted to be colonel in March, 1862. He compelled General Bragg to evacuate Tennessee, led Rosecrans' army to Chattanooga, and began the battle of Chickamauga, and during the three days' fight the lines of his brigade were not broken.

COMMITTEE TO REVISE FOOT BALL RULES.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31—The foot ball rules committee, composed of representatives of fourteen leading colleges, meets here Friday and Saturday, and hopes to revise the rules so as to eliminate the dangers which caused the terrible death and accident record last season.

Judge Henry T. Titus

Candidate for Mayor of City of Daytona

THE PLATFORM HE STANDS FOR

The prosperity and welfare of the entire city.

Justice to all in Municipal Court, regardless of standing, class or color.

Believes in disposing of misdemeanors in the city court, and placing all fines to the city, rather than encourage the cases being turned over to the State and County officials.

Believes that the city should use every means to have the deplorable streets placed in No. 1 condition, and thus maintain Daytona's reputation of the past—that of having the best streets of any city in the State.

Believes the city should build a side-walk from Midway to Waycross, on Second Street, for the benefit of the colored school children.

Believes in the strict enforcement of all sanitary laws.

Pledges himself to use every effort to bring about a change of the City Charter, for the express purpose of raising the millage and lowering the valuation of all city property so as to protect the valuations of city property from the State and County assessment.

Believes in the continued improvement of the City Island for a public park.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

MORE MEDDLING.

It is proposed to cut out the words "So help me God" from the oath in the District of Columbia courts of justice.

Which will provoke opposition. When the bill is introduced in congress it is likely there will be developed a most determined objection. Theodore Roosevelt tried the temper of the people along this line.

He ordered the time honored inscription "In God We Trust" omitted from some of the coinage. The storm of popular protest compelled him to rescind the order and restore the motto. Roosevelt's popularity could not overcome this unpopular order.

And so of this latter proposal. It will be very unpopular.

There is no good reason for the elimination of the solemn assertion that concludes the usual oath. The oath itself is not a long one, and, although the declaration is oftentimes mouthed by the court clerks into three syllables, it certainly lends a certain solemnity to our court procedure.

A little more of sanctity is sadly needed in some of our American courts. In the reaction against the cumbersome methods of English jurisprudence we have gone to the other extreme.

Besides, this is not a godless country.

It is customary nowadays to criticize the church methods. That may be well enough. The church is fallible, being made of fallible people. But there are millions upon millions of devout worshippers who pronounce the name of deity with reverence and sincerity.

And there are other people out of touch with the church and out of sympathy with some of its methods who nevertheless are devout believers in God.

It will be remembered that France once tried to go against the deepest religious instincts of its people.

The revolution leaders enthroned the "goddess of Reason" in the person of a prostitute and wrote over the portals of the graveyards, "Death is an eternal sleep."

But when the orgies were over the sacrilegious proceeding became a mere episode of history.

"So help me God" is coined out of the deepest instincts of the human heart.

In his hour of crisis and of agony the wickedest man will exclaim, "God help me!"

No, you can't cut across the grain of a people's most sacred feelings and traditions.

If the concluding part of the court oath should be eliminated it is safe to say the demand of the people will restore it.

NEW BOAT TORONITA TO ENTER EXCURSION FIELD.

C. F. Burgman's new boat, the Toronita, recently completed at Seabreeze by Harry Brigham, was brought to the Conrad dock Saturday morning to receive some finishing touches at the hands of Joseph Osborne.

The Toronita is an open cabin boat, thirty-six feet in length and ten foot beam. She is fitted with a 24-horse power Grant Ferris engine and should prove a comfortable and speedy craft. She is supplied with means for serving coffee on the trip and with lavatory and toilet.

The Toronita will be used for regular excursion trips to Tomoka river, Mound Grove and New Smyrna and will have as pilot Wesley Herrick, assisted by C. F. Burgman, Jr. Toronita, meaning Sunland, is the local Indian name for Florida.

ROBBED BY MAN HE HAD BEFRIENDED.

(Continued from first page.) How the fellow opened the safe is a problem for both Mr. and Mrs. Smith insist it was securely locked and the combination a difficult one. The safe is a two-ton Moseley.

Mr. Smith at once came to Daytona and informed Deputy Sheriff Meyers of the robbery and telegrams were sent to Jacksonville and Atlanta to lookout for the thief. Later, it was found that he had walked to Port Orange, purchased a pair of shoes and a ticket for St. Augustine, leaving Port Orange on the belated afternoon train of that day, which did not reach here until late in the evening.

Mr. Smith and Deputy Sheriff Meyers went up to St. Augustine Saturday afternoon but could not locate their man there and Officer Meyers returned Sunday afternoon while Mr. Smith continued on to Atlanta.

After his return Mr. Myers received a telegram, followed by a letter from W. D. Vinzant, Jacksonville chief of Police, saying that the man wanted had passed through that city on his way into Georgia.

Mr. Myers says the fellow has a sister living near Atlanta and was probably headed for that place.

Mr. Smith was not very positive as to the man's name as given to him, but thought it was Walter Carner.

MABEL PAIGE COMPANY WILL BE HERE WEDNESDAY.

The general public of Daytona will undoubtedly herald with delight the coming of the "Idol of the South." Miss Mabel Paige and her excellent company will be here two nights, at the opera house commencing Wednesday, February 2nd, presenting two high class plays.

For the opening play Wednesday night they will present a domestic comedy drama, a correct dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' great novel.

All the principal characters of the book are shown in the play. John Middleton has two daughters whom he has nick-named "Tempest" and "Sunshine." Tempest is a selfish, pessimistic girl with an ungovernable temper, while Sunshine is just the opposite. Both are equally loved by their parents and everything possible is done for their welfare and future of both.

Both girls fall in love with the same man. Tempest at once starts a conspiracy but is found out, and it is the same old story. All ends well and everybody is happy.

Miss Paige will be seen in the very charming character of Sunshine.

The play is just full of good bright snappy comedy, furnished mostly by two old negro servants, Uncle Juber and Aunt Judy.

The play for the second night will be announced later.

Shipley, St. Louis.

THE ALLEN PARTY

AT THE AUSTIN.

The Frank H. Allen party of New York, twenty-one strong, arrived in Daytona Friday from Palatka. They left New York on the 15th, one day late on account of the storm, which was still raging when they started. They had fair trip down and arrived in Jacksonville on the 21st; from Jacksonville they took the St. Johns river steamer to Sanford; then to Altamont Springs; took the Ocklawaha trip, thence to Palatka and on to Beautiful Daytona, was the interesting itinerary of the party thus far. They expect to remain at the Austin, where they are now pleasantly located, for a week; from Daytona they go to St. Augustine, where the party disperses. The party includes the following: A. S. Long and wife, Boston; W. L. Main and wife, Paul Massey and wife, Mystic, Conn.; H. D. Brewster and wife, Bayshore, L. I.; Frank H. Allen and wife, Mrs. R. W. Kimball, Mrs. M. F. Fuller, Mrs. E. Ex-Queen Liliuokalani.

Former Hawaiian Ruler Seeks Aid For the Islands.

Former Queen Liliuokalani of Hawaii, who lost her throne when American native residents of the island set up the republic which later transferred its allegiance to the United States, is now trying to induce the government to encourage emigration to the islands.

"I hear your son is achieving great success in his stage career."
"Yes," replied the architect.
"I should have thought he would have entered your profession."
"Well, it amounts to the same thing. We both make money by drawing good houses."—Stray Stories.

Gladdening a Humorist.
The financial burden which Mark Twain carried some years ago weighed on his mind heavily. In those moments of despondency there was one faithful friend who could make the humorist forget his troubles. This was Dan Beard, the artist who illustrated some of Twain's books.

"Dan Beard, there is no tonic that can equal the company of a cheerful man," said the humorist as he entered the artist's studio.

"Ah, but I have such a pleasant subject to work upon that I am not in need of either man or tonic for my cheerfulness," retorted the artist.

"Beg pardon; it is I that need the tonic, and that is why I am here," said Twain forlornly.

"Then allow me to prescribe a dose of your own medicine." And Mark Beard was handed a copy of his book which Beard had been studying.

"I thank you," replied the humorist. "It took me a year to get that medicine out of my system, and I do not propose to imbibe it again."

A discussion of the book was followed by a hearty dinner, and Twain left his friend, having received the cheer that he needed.

The Alligator's Tongue.

On one occasion when traveling along the west coast of Africa with an old skipper who had known many missionaries, but "did not see the use of them," Bishop Taylor-Smith was obliged to endure a string of taunting questions, such as "What was the good of spouting at Exeter hall?" and "What did missionaries know, anyway?"

At last the bishop could stand it no longer. Turning to the skipper, he said: "I know you are an expert. Can you tell me the length of an alligator's tongue?"

"Certainly," was the reply, "but it depends on the length of the alligator." "Very well, then; given an alligator fifteen feet long, what would be the length of its tongue?"

"Three feet," was the answer.

But the bishop, who had kept alligators and watched their ways, knew better. "It is evident that you are an authority on the west coast of Africa," he said, "but it is also evident that some people see more in ten minutes than others in twenty years. Let me tell you that an alligator has no tongue."

Declined the Job.

A writer of cheap fiction relates a trick played on him by a collaborator in the days when dime novels were longer than they are now, and the compensation made it worth while for two men to write one story between them. After his partner had finished the first chapter of their initial collaboration it was handed over with the following announcement:

"There, I've just thrown the hero over a thousand foot cliff and told the reader that nothing could prevent the lad from falling to death on the rocks below. It is up to you to save the boy."

The other writer said nothing, but sat down and wrote furiously for an hour. Then he quietly handed the manuscript back. A glance at the second chapter showed the funny man that his friend had completely ignored the events in the first part of the story, introduced a new set of characters and left the hero still hanging over the cliff, waiting to be rescued by his creator.—New York Sun.

Poetry Didn't Save Them.

A New York prisoner accused of drunkenness who pleaded his case in rhyme before a magistrate got a sentence of six months on "the island," for, as the judge remarked, his "jag" was bad enough, but his poetry was worse. Over in London a "plain drunk" put forth this:

I've been drinking wine that is drawn from the wood;
No bottle rubbish, but sparkling and good.
But it got in my head, so my friends all explain
That the wine has gone back to the wood once again.

The effusion and the celebration cost him 10 shillings.—New York Tribune.

College Sentiment.

Dr. Blank, about twenty years a professor in a certain college, was on the eve of a trip to Europe, to be absent two years. In pathetic and rather harrowing tones he made his farewell address to his class:

"Yes, I am about to part with you. This is more than distressing to me. Would that there was a window in my breast, my dear boys, that you might see the innermost recesses of my heart."

A stripling in the rear, seized with a happy thought, shouted:
"Professor, would a pane in the stomach do?"—Lippincott's.

Unusual Luck.

"So you've rented that haunted house which was on your hands so long?"

"Yes; rented it to an actor."
"Did he find out its reputation?"

"That's the very thing which decided him to take the house."

"Rather surprising?"

"He said it would be such a comfort for him to get inside of a house where the ghost walked every night."—Baltimore American.

Mrs. Malaprop.

"You mustn't think you ought to run around barefooted, Johnny," said Mrs. Lapsling chidingly. "Just because Bobby Stapleford does. He's no centurion to go by."—Cassell's Journal.

WADE H. ELLIS, BROUGHT FORWARD BY NIGHT RIDER TROUBLES.

The Night Rider disturbances in the tobacco growing regions of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana having attracted the attention of the federal government, the name of Wade H. Ellis, assistant to Attorney General Wickersham and a noted "trust buster," was brought forward as that of a man on whom the government could rely to learn whether there was any necessity for federal intervention. Mr. Ellis has made a name for himself as an investigator. He was formerly attorney general of Ohio and conducted the suits of that commonwealth against the Standard Oil company and other big corporations.

WHO SHOULD OBEY?

By SADIE OLCOTT.
(Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.)

"Tom, there is one word in the marriage service that I won't say."
"What's that, darling?"
"Obey."
"Well, sweetheart, you needn't."
"I won't say it—I won't, I won't!"
"But why should you say it?"
"Why, it's in the service, isn't it?"
"It's in the Episcopal service, but we needn't be married in that church. Some of the others are not so particular."

"Tom, I've been brought up in the Episcopal church, and I won't be married by any other service."

"Well, well, darling, you needn't. Why be so positive about it?"
"Because I won't. And I won't say 'obey' either."

Tom and Jenny were married in church, but there was no one present except members of their respective families. As the clock struck high noon the couple stood before the altar and a clergyman in proper vestments began the marriage service. The responses were made by the groom in a modest tone, but decidedly by the bride until the words love, honor and obey were to be spoken. Jenny promised to "love, honor," and stopped.

"Obey," said the clergyman.

"I won't," replied the bride.

The clergyman looked surprised, then shut up the book.

"Jenny!" exclaimed her father.

"Say it," said her mother. "You needn't pay any attention to it after you're married. I haven't."

"Can I do that?" asked Jenny of the clergyman.

"No."

"Leave it out," said Tom to the dominie.

"That is not permitted. This service is prescribed by the church. I have no power to add to it or take away from it."

"Oh, Jenny!" exclaimed an aunt.

"Say it, sweetheart," whispered the groom. "I'll give you your way in everything."

"I won't," said Jenny.

"Jenny," said her father angrily. "I'm ashamed of you."

Jenny began to cry, and from crying she became hysterical. Her mother put her arms about her and attempted to quiet her, but without effect.

"Can't you slur it over?" the groom asked of the clergyman. "It's only a form anyway."

"Slur it over! Only a form! Every word of this service has been carefully considered, and every word means something."

The hubbub commenced anew. The clergyman stood waiting while efforts to induce the bride to speak the objectionable word were renewed. Finally the clergyman, with a twinkle in his eye, said impressively:

"Dearly beloved, whereas Thomas and Jane having come to me to be joined together in the bonds of holy matrimony, and whereas the church in its wisdom formed this service to give to every family a head, and whereas Jenny refuses to acknowledge Thomas as that head, I see but one way by which the intention of the church can be carried out in this case. Let Thomas acknowledge Jane as the head of the family; let him promise the required obedience. If he will do this I will proceed with the ceremony."

Every eye was turned upon Tom, some in evident expectation that he would accept this solution of the problem, some knitting their brows and giving vent to their disapprobation in subdued mutterings.

"I'll be—banged if I'll do it!" exclaimed the groom.

The bride wept on.

"Tom," whispered his mother, "the word doesn't mean anything. A woman always expects her husband to be at the head of the house. If he isn't she doesn't respect him."

"Never!" cried Tom, growing excited.

"Tommy," pleaded his Aunt Mary, "do be reasonable and stop this fracas; it's disgraceful."

"Thomas," put in his Uncle Josh, "you might as well promise. You'll have to knuckle down anyway."

"It isn't that," replied Tom excitedly. "I don't care who's head. I'm a man, and I'll be. I'll never knuckle under to a woman—openly."

"Me, too," said Uncle Josh, "but I give in all the same."

"You give in?" snapped the wife.

"Everybody knows how I have to sacrifice to your whims."

"Beloved," said the clergyman, raising his voice to surmount the din, "remember that you are in a church dedicated to the exclusive service of God. Inasmuch as neither party to this solemn contract will promise to obey the other, a requirement prescribed by the ritual, I pronounce a marriage impossible."

The bride gave a shudder.

"And I want it distinctly understood," cried the groom at the top of his voice, "that I'm not going to make a guy of myself. I have some self-respect, and I have friends whose good opinion I wish to keep. If I did that every friend I've got in the world would chaff me to death."

"Not the married ones," put in Uncle Josh.

Tom had left his hat in a pew near by, and, darting to it, he picked it up and was going at a rapid pace to the door when the bride darted after him, caught him by the coat-tail halfway up the aisle, whispered something in his ear, and the two went back to the altar.

"Go on," said Tom to the dominie.

The ceremony proceeded, and Jenny promised to obey with becoming meekness.

Needle Dust.

In factories where needles are made the grindstones throw off great quantities of minute steel particles, with which the air becomes heavily charged, although the dust is too fine to be perceptible to the eye. Breathing the dust shows no immediate effect, but gradually sets up irritation, usually ending in pulmonary consumption. Ineffective attempts were made to screen the air by gauze or linen guards for nose and mouth. At last the use of the magnet was suggested, and now masks of magnetized steel wire are worn by workmen and effectually remove the metal dust before the air is breathed.—London Graphic.

DAYTONA vs. DeLAND

BASKET BALL GAME

The DeLand team played the Daytona Basket Ball team at the Armory Saturday night, and while there is no criticism to make against the Daytona team considering their brief organization and little practice, still a game between the two teams at the time seemed a slaughtering of the in-nocents as far as the match was concerned. The DeLand team is one of the longest organized and best in the State, and did credit to their sustained reputation. Miss Lee Bowers, who was a member of the Stetson team last year while at the University, and who was one of the forwards of the Daytona team, made some brilliant plays, which brought hearty applause from the DeLand contingency as well as the home people. The score at the close stood 42 to 12 in favor of DeLand.

The line-up of the two teams were center; Misses Keone and Hough, forwards; Misses Nahn and Rowe, guards. Daytona—Miss Winnie Kingston, center; Misses Lillian Bingham and Lee Bowers, forwards; Misses Marguerite Houghton and Roberta Hobbs, guards.

The referees were Spec Campbell and Mr. Hitchcock.

Mrs. Gauden chaperoned the De-Land team who came over Saturday shortly after noon and went up to Ormond to witness the ball game between Stetson and Ormond teams, returning after the game and were entertained at The Magnolia and several private homes by the Daytona team.

SEVERELY BITTEN ON WRIST BY LARGE DOG.

A large dog, said to belong to Schmidt's Villa, has a habit of wandering about Bay street, and Saturday morning went up on the piazza of Mrs. Abbott's cottage and went to sleep. Mrs. Abbott's granddaughter, Evelyn Roxby, was in a hammock, and jumping up suddenly to go into the house, the dog sprang up and bit her very severely on the wrist.
The dog had snapped at her once before and she was afraid of him; he had also exhibited unpleasant traits at another house on that street.

An Awkward Selection.

The first Aaron Kenyon was rather fond of telling the story of how while on circuit with Justice Rook they accidentally entered a village just in time to accompany the population to the little village church. The parish clerk, anxious to have the congregation show due appreciation of the honor conferred by the presence of the distinguished jurists, gave out two verses of one of the metrical psalms: "Speak, O ye judges of the earth, if just your sentence be, or must not innocence appeal to heaven from your decree? Your wicked hearts and judgments are alike by malice swayed, your gripping hands by mighty bribes to violence betrayed."
By this time most of the adults had woken up to the application of the psalm and remained silent, allowing the children to continue the second verse.—London Tatler.

A Soft Answer.
Jewel—Arrah, Jimmy, why did I marry ye? Just tell me that, for it's meself that's had to maintain ye ever since the blessed day that I became your wife.

"Swate jewel," replied Jimmy, not relishing the charge, "and it's meself that hopes I may live to see the day when you're a widow weeping over the cold sod that covers me. Then I'll see how you'll get along without me, honey."—London Tit-Bits.

Needed Repairs.
"Does your typewriter need repairs?"
asked the mendering tinker as he entered the office.

"It would seem so," replied the employer. "She has just gone across the street to consult a dentist."

Advantage is a better soldier than rashness.—Shakespeare.

PICKERT COMPANY CLOSED EN-GAGEMENT SATURDAY NIGHT.

The popularity of the Four Pickerts was fully demonstrated Saturday night when, with several counter attractions and a cold evening to contend against, they played to a well filled house, closing a three-night engagement at the Daytona Opera House, with the comedy drama, The Captain's Double.

This performance fully sustained the good impression created by those preceding and clinched the fact that Mr. Pickert has gathered about the "family" some very excellent talent.
The Four Pickerts song and dance specialty was enthusiastically received, as usual, as was also Val C.
Cleary's illustrated song, My Lady Love, and enchoire, Pony Boy, in the closing chorus in which the audience was requested to join.

So pleased was Mr. Pickert with the reception accorded here that he may return with the company again this season if he finds he can arrange the dates.

Saturday Afternoon Matinee.

The Child of the Street, presented by the Four Pickerts at the Opera house Saturday afternoon was a sparkling comedy and finely rendered. A fair audience greeted the performance a preponderance of whom were young people from both sides of the river.
But whatever was lacking in number in the audience was more than offset by the keen enjoyment of those present.

Miss Blanche Pickert, in the role of the child of the street, was charmingly natural, and the true hearted lover, the gouty but noble old uncle, the inevitable villain were good casts and had good support. The illustrated songs were well received, a novel feature of which was inviting the audience to join in the chorus of a popular street air, which invitation was accepted right heartily.

ANOTHER FIRE IN COLORED SETTLEMENT OF MIDWAY.

The fire alarm was sounded again between half past two and three o'- clock, Sunday morning, calling attention to another fire in Midway, in which two frame buildings of two stories each were destroyed.

Frosts and fires are often close companions and seem to have a special penchant for occurring Sunday mornings, and this occasion was no exception to the rule.

The fire was the result of the explosion of a coil stove in the upper story of one of the buildings in which a number of persons were sleeping.
The fire spread so rapidly that it was impossible to save the houses. A colored man was burned about face and feet in escaping through the flames and but little was saved from the houses, which were owned by a colored man by the name of Jones.

Mrs. G. W. Sparkman, of Tampa, and Miss Dora Bryan, of Birmingham, Ala., sisters of Mrs. T. F. Williams, came over with Mr. Williams from Sanford Saturday night and will visit with Mrs. Williams and family for several weeks. Mr. Williams made the trip, an initial one, in his new five-seater Buick car. The party, which included LaRue Williams, a cousin of Mr. Williams, left Sanford after nine o'clock Saturday evening and reached home at about 11:30 O'- clock, and although this was one of our sharply cool nights they were so well protected in the car that they had a fine drive of it. Messrs.
T. F. and LaRue Williams left this morning on their return to Sanford.
